

MISS CATHERINE CABELL

Miss Cabell to Make Bow

Miss Catharine deWitt Cabell, a former Pasadena, will be presented to society at the Debutante Cotillion and Thanksgiving Ball tomorrow night in the Sheraton-Park Hotel, Washington, D. C. Proceeds of the social event will go to the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund for Cancer Research.

Miss Cabell, daughter of Lt. Gen. Charles Pearre Cabell, U. S. Air Forces, and Mrs. Cabell resided in Pasadena with her mother while the general was serving overseas. She attended St. Philip's School.

Her cousin, John P. Marx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Marx of Pasadena, will be her escort. He is a member of the floor committee and is a senior at Georgetown University.

General and Mrs. Cabell will have a tea dance Dec. 29 at Bolling Air Force Base Officers Club for their daughter. General Cabell is deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington, D. C.
